HPL is having a Tiny Art Show!

Calling all patrons! As part of HPL's birthday celebration, we want to highlight your big creativity in a super small size!

Throughout the month of July, we are holding open art times in the craft room where we will provide a 4x4 canvas and materials to create your work of art. Find our open art times below! If you cannot attend any of these sessions, you can pick up a take home tiny art kit at any of the desks in the library. Just bring your canvas back by July 30th, then we will display your art in HPL's atrium through the month of August!
